

St. Ignatius Catholic Church and the Archdiocesan Office of Life Justice & Peace Present

Active Hope - Earth Day and Every Day Experiential Retreat with Pam Wood

Sunday, April 17, Noon - 3 PM, Loyola Jesuit Ctr
3220 SE 43rd Avenue, Portland OR 97206

Retreat Content: The challenges we face in today's world can be difficult even to think about—climate change, mass extinction, social and political upheaval. Active Hope shows us how to strengthen our mutual capacity to face this crisis so we can respond with resilience and creative power. Facilitator: Pam Wood is a counselor and facilitator working with faith communities to deepen our connection with the Earth through experiential and interactive processes, reflection, Catholic social teaching, ritual, art and music. She is the co-author of "Care for Creation: A Franciscan Spirituality of Earth" (St. Anthony Messenger Press, 2008). Childcare and luncheon finger foods provided.

Please RSVP by April 14th online at <https://stignatiusjustice.wordpress.com/> or by calling the St. Ignatius Parish office (503) 777-1491.
